Nothing here has been sent. Ronnie decides the offer, the wording and whether to send at all. Anything in [square brackets] is a choice only he can make.

1. First message to a landscaper or turf layer (text or email)

> Hi [name], Ronnie here from Urban Landscape Supplies in Wetherill Park.
>
> We do soil, turf underlay, mulch, sand and pebbles in 1-tonne bulk bags. You can pick up from the yard at 21/130 Hassall St or we deliver to site.
>
> If you've got a job coming up, send me what you need and I'll come back with a price today.
>
> [First-order offer, if he wants one: e.g. a set price per bag for 4 or more, or delivery included locally.]
>
> 0433 132 406

Why it's written this way: one short message, says what he sells and where, and asks for one thing (a job to price). No "hope you're well", no list of benefits.

If they reply with a job: price it the same day. If they don't reply: one follow-up a week later, then leave it.

> Hi [name], Ronnie from Urban Landscape Supplies again. Still happy to price your next job if it's useful. Otherwise I'll leave you to it.

>

> - Decorative pebbles for the top: snow white, charcoal and lava
> - Garden soil, mulch and sand for the rest of the garden
>
> It comes in 1-tonne bulk bags, and the pebbles also come in 20kg bags if you only need a little. Pick up from the yard or we'll quote delivery to you.

> Thanks for the order, [name]. If you've got 30 seconds, a Google review really helps a small yard like ours: [his Google review link]
